Product Overview

A comprehensive offering

Our product offering is sourced from a quality assured global network or directly imported to ensure consistent product availability. This galvanises our supply chain efficiency. Through our partner agencies and direct importing capacity, we are uniquely positioned to provide one of the most comprehensive ranges of general industrial hose available in the Australian market, ensuring business continuity for our valued clients.

In addition to our product offering, our technically qualified teams are capable of manufacturing a full spectrum of hose assemblies and can custom engineer a solution to meet client specific requirements.

INDUSTRIAL HOSE & FITTINGS

We stock an extensive range of industrial hoses, tubing and flexible ducting, available in an array of materials such as rubber, PVC, nylon, thermoplastic and polyurethane. Our fittings range includes an array of thread types and materials.

Our inventory includes industrial hoses for air/water delivery through to high pressure mine hoses and everything in between. This is complemented by an equally extensive range of end fittings, available in multiple material and thread variations to offer a combination suitable for almost every application.

HoseCo staff ensure end hose connections will be fully compatible with hoses selected.
